Corrections have been made to this article to add references.

On page 3, the first sentence starting with 'Instead...' has been adjusted as follows: 'Instead, inspired by the quantitative stratification method and Reifenberg-type theorems developed by Cheeger, Naber and Valtorta (see [6, 7, 28, 30])...'.

On page 4, after the first paragraph sentence starting with 'Our approach is...' the following sentence has been added: 'Their method combines the quantitative stratification method introduced by Cheeger and Naber in [6], and new Reifenberg-type theorems (see a summary in [13]).'

The following references have been added:
