In the original article, there are graphic errors in Fig. 4.
The correct figure is presented here:

Fig. 4 Mean cuing effect, $\pm$ SE, for the RT (bars) and error data (lines), in Experiment 1, tactile targets (a), and Experiment 2, visual targets (b), in both the intramodal and crossmodal conditions. Asterisks represent significant effects: $P < 0.05$. bs borderline significant effects, ns non-significant effects
