The originally published version of this article contains an error introduced during typesetting while in production.

At the bottom of the left column of page 6, it currently reads:

"Other articles in this special issue honoring Albert Feng provide more in-depth treatments examining the evolution of high-frequency calls and the mechanisms of high-frequency hearing (Cobo-Cuan et al. presumably 2022)."

Corrected version should be as below:

The article by Cobo-Cuan et al. (2022) in this special issue honoring Albert Feng provides a more in-depth treatment on high-frequency hearing.

The original article has been corrected.
