Correction to: European Archives of Oto-Rhino-Laryngology
<https://doi.org/10.1007/s00405-019-05480-y>

In the original publication, the patient number was incorrectly published under the “Methods” heading in the abstract section. The incorrect sentence reads as “55 patients with Reinke’s edema, who were admitted from November 2010 to June 2018, were enrolled as research subjects for the retrospective analysis.”

The correct sentence should read as “57 patients with Reinke’s edema, who were admitted from November 2010 to June 2018, were enrolled as research subjects for the retrospective analysis.”

The original article has been corrected.
