After publication, in the Discussion section the value on the text “With the established harmonisation process, it was possible to achieve national standardisation for 102 off-label dosage recommendations of 306 various drugs for children.” should have been read “With the established harmonisation process, it was possible to achieve national standardisation for 102 off-label dosage recommendations of 30 various drugs for children.” [Bold text used to highlight problem area].

The original article has been corrected.
