Although the focus of our article (Goudarzi et al. 2018a) reports novel data and has a different focus compared to our other publication in International Journal of Biometeorology (Goudarzi et al. 2018b) and our publication in Toxin Reviews (Goudarzi 2017), we acknowledge that we have duplicated some text. We apologize for the inappropriate overlap between our three publications and our lack of transparency about the similarities between these articles.
