The 7th International Conference on Computing, Communication and Sensor Network was held in Kolkata, India, October 27th–28th, 2018.

General Chair of CCSN 2018 was Professor Debashis De from Abul Kalam Azad University of Technology, Kolkata, India.

Chairman of the Committee was also Prof. Dulal Acharjee, President IASTM, Kolkata, India, who did a very good job to prepare this Special Issue.

The responsible Guest Editor of this Special Issue was Prof. Debashis De, the General Chair of the CCSN 2018 conference.

Under his guidance a selection of outstanding papers of CCSN 2018 had been carried out. All papers had to undergo a strong paper review, organized by the Guest Editor, Prof. Debashis De.

It is my pleasure as Editor-in-chief of our journal to thank the Guest Editor and his crew for this very good work.
