In the introduction section of this article, a song is mentioned, it was translated by Bertram Kottmann.

*Seht ihr den Mond dort stehen?
Er ist nur halb zu sehen
Und ist doch rund und schön!
So sind wohl manche Sachen
Die wir getrost belachen
Weil unsre Augen sie nicht sehn.
Behold the moon—and wonder
Why half of her stands yonder,
Yet she is round and fair!
We follow empty visions
And artisans' ambitions
Because our minds are unaware.*

From Abendlied (Evening Song), Matthias Claudius, eighteenth century. “Translation © Bertram Kottmann”.
