In the original publication, the first line of the “Tolerability and safety” section was incorrectly published as “A high proportion (92.2%) of the study participants (all long-term Peristeen® users) were satisfied or very satisfied with the IryPump®R Set”. The correct text should read as “A moderate proportion (57.1%) of the study participants (all long-term Peristeen® users) were satisfied or very satisfied with the IryPump®R Set”.
