The original version of this article was incorrectly published with article title. The title originally read, “Pregnant pipefish with a simple brooding surface lose less weight when carrying heavier eggs: evidence of compensation for low oocyte quality?” this should have been read as “Pregnant pipefish with a simple brooding surface lose less weight when carrying heavier eggs: evidence of compensation for low oocyte quality?” [Bold text used to highlight problem area].

The correct article title is shown above.

The online version of the original article can be found at <https://doi.org/10.1007/s10211-017-0268-1>
