

Application for awards in 2011

© The Ichthyological Society of Japan 2010

The Ichthyological Society of Japan (ISJ) annually presents the Young Ichthyologist Award and the Best Article Award to an eminent young ichthyologist and to authors of articles published in Ichthyological Research or in the Japanese Journal of Ichthyology, in appreciation for their achievement and contribution to ichthyology. Members of ISJ are strongly encouraged to apply for these awards.

The Young Ichthyologist Award 2011

This award is given to an ichthyologist who is less than 40 years of age as of 31 December 2010. Nominees must be society members. The prize winner is asked to make a speech on his or her achievements in ichthyology at a plenary session of the ISJ meeting 2011. The winner receives 50,000 yen and traveling expenses (up to 150,000 yen).

The Best Article Award 2011

This award is given for an article published in Ichthyological Research vol 55(1)–57(4) or in the Japanese Journal of Ichthyology vol 55(1)–57(2). To be eligible as nominees, at least one of the authors of the article must be a member of ISJ. Awards may be given for two or three articles from different research fields.
