

Call for papers for new category “monograph”

© The Ichthyological Society of Japan 2014

Ichthyological Research has established a new category, monograph, to encourage the publication of a paper including a comprehensive treatment of a subject in any field related to fishes. Twenty-five pages are free of charge for both members and non-members of the Ichthyological Society of Japan. For details, please refer to the website of Ichthyological Research (<http://www.springer.com/life+sciences/animal+sciences/journal/10228>).
