Erratum

In the Forum article “Misallocation, Big Time: Why (and How) Structural Reform Can Revive Productivity Growth in Europe” by Dan Andrews in Intereconomics, Vol. 50, No. 5, 2015, p. 270, DOI: 10.1007/s10272-015-0550-2, the wrong image for Figure 7 was used. The correct image appears here.

Intereconomics regrets the error.

Capital reallocation to innovative firms is difficult in Southern Europe

Notes: Additional capital attracted by a firm that increases its patent stock by ten per cent, 2002-2010 average. These estimates are obtained from a firm-level fixed-effects regression of the capital stock on the firm's depreciated patent stock. To obtain the country-specific estimate, the patent stock is interacted with various dummy variables for each country.
