On May 29, 2017, the day before the conference, a workshop entitled “Facing risk ... sometimes with negative interest rate” was organised in memory of Professor Marida Bertocchi. Her close friends: Franco Archetti, Elio Canestrelli, Georg Pflug, Zari Rachev, Grazia Speranza, Giovanni Zambruno, Stavros Zenios, Bill Ziemba, Francesco Zirilli, presented their memories of research and life with Marida.

We should like to thank all persons who helped to organize the conference. We are indebted to the organisers of the invited sessions and the members of the Programme Committee for the success of the conference and the quality of submissions to this special issue.
