The original version of the article unfortunately contains misreported values in Table 2. The true values that were fitted using Eqs. 7–10 and 11–14 and that were used for all simulations in the paper are written below. The following is correct:

- “ b_0 ” should be equal to 70.7 kPa^{-1}
- “ γ ” should be equal to $0.0016 \text{ kg mol}^{-1}$
- “ β ” should be equal to 59.1 kg mol^{-1}
