In Table 3 (p. 698), the row referencing “Wanting attention” incorrectly reported values for “female bisexual targets” in the columns for “male bisexual targets,” and vice versa. The authors would like to thank Dr. Alan Smerbeck at the Rochester Institute of Technology for alerting us to this error.

Two rounding errors in percentages were also identified and have been corrected: male bisexual target, “gender non-conforming,” total (all raters) and female bisexual target, “really gay,” male rater.

Table 3 needs to be corrected to:
