Due to the death of Alan B. Krueger, Ying Zhen's collaborator of the MIRA Survey of Musicians, and in agreement with his estate, it is more appropriate to acknowledge his work than include him as a coauthor. The original article has been corrected.

Acknowledgements I especially thank Dr. Alan B. Krueger for his collaboration in designing the MIRA survey questions, extracting the results from the survey into a report, and preparing slides for our presentation at the 2018 MIRA conference in Los Angeles. Dr. Alan B. Krueger passed away in March 2019. He will be missed. I thank Dr. Edward P. Freeland, Associate Director of Princeton University Survey Research Center and James Reeves, the former Research Assistant of Princeton University. I appreciate the cooperation of MusiCares in partnering with us to recruit many of the musicians who completed the MIRA survey. I am also thankful for Dr. Daniel Hamilton of California Lutheran University, Dr. Cameron Weber of St. Johns University and Dr. J.J. Arias of Georgia College & State University for their valuable suggestions and time.
