The original article was published with an incorrect version of footnote 3. The correct text appears below.

³The following conventions were followed in compiling the transcription and the translation. Square brackets indicate a lacuna of any length, parentheses the completion of an abbreviated text. Different type styles have been employed to indicate the different languages used in the document: Judeo-Arabic appears in roman type, Hebrew is underlined, and Aramaic is italicized.

The text of the original article has been updated.

Figures 1 and 2 should have been published in the above-mentioned article. The omitted figures and figure captions appear on the next pages.
