Dear Colleagues, readers and friends:

The double issue at hands is composed of two Special Issues: 1) Robotica, and 2) RoMoCo. All submitted papers have been handled by the Editor-in-Chief and the Guest Editors and they have been reviewed extensively before acceptance. These papers represent considerably enhanced papers of the conference papers that were presented in the Robotica and RoMoCo conferences.

The Guest Editors have provided detailed editorials about the contents of the Special Issues. I believe you will find all papers informative and of high quality.

Enjoy the double issue.
