Dear Colleagues:

As we approach the end of the year, we would like to recommend that you complete any in-progress paper and submit it to JINT. The November – December time frame is the period where all handling editors and I try to clean up the queue, process all papers faster than usual, remind late reviewers to wrap up their reviews such that an informed decision is made. However, quality is always preserved. The main reason for doing so relates to starting the new physical year with as few pending papers as possible. We also try to publish the November – December issues as early as possible, and this helps us logistically and planning-wise.

We thank you for your support and we look forward to continue serving you.

Enjoy the issue.

Kimon P. Valavanis.
Editor-in-Chief.
