To the readership of the Journal of Clinical Immunology:

With the publication of the article entitled “Coronin-1A: Immune Deficiency in Humans and Mice” in the February issue of the Journal, we begin our Journal of Clinical Immunology continuing medical education (CME) review program where readers can receive 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™] for each review article, granted by the Clinical Immunology Society (CIS). Readers wishing to receive CME credit should read the article in this issue of the Journal, and answer the questions found on the CIS Journal CME web page, for each review:

<http://www.clinimmsoc.org/education/continuing-medical-education/e-learning-tools/journal-cme>

Achieving a score of 80 % or higher will qualify for 1 CME credit. We invite all of our readers interested in obtaining CME credits to enroll in this program. We are confident that you will enjoy this new feature of the Journal.
