Dear readers of the Journal of Economic Inequality,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank two members of the editorial board who have played a major role in advancing the status of the Journal since its start, and to welcome two new members to the team.

Yves Flueckiger has served actively as Co-Editor of the Journal since its beginning in 2002. He was particularly influential in the early critical period in drawing the scope and the editorial procedures of the Journal. His academic balance and his enthusiastic commitment to the Journal have been appreciated by all those who have had the pleasure of interacting with him.

Ravi Kanbur has just ended a successful five-year mandate as the Journal's Forum Editor, promoting papers with a significant potential to influence the agenda of the literature on inequality. His outstanding academic achievements and intellectual breadth have been central to helping bring to the fore issues that were both important and under-researched.

Cecilia Garcia-Peñalosa and Nora Lustig have kindly agreed to replace Yves and Ravi, respectively as Co-Editor and Journal's Forum Editor. We look forward to working with Cecilia and Nora in continuing to improve the quality and the importance of the Journal's contribution to the field of economic inequality.

We are grateful to Yves and Ravi for the great services they have rendered to the Journal and we welcome warmly Cecilia and Nora to the editorial team.
