The Editors and Associate Editors of Linguistics and Philosophy were deeply saddened by the untimely death in July of one of their number, Professor Delia Graff Fara, of Princeton University. Professor Fara was 48 years old. An MIT Ph.D., she taught at Princeton and then Cornell before returning to Princeton. In that time, her writings established her as one of the leading philosophers of language of her generation, and our journal greatly benefited from her expertise since she joined the Associate Editors in 2015. She is survived by her husband and daughter, to whom we extend our heartfelt condolences.
