Erratum to: New Forests DOI 10.1007/s11056-009-9181-4

Unfortunately, In the original publication under the Section “Results and discussion” the sentence in the 6th paragraph for the subheading “Remote sensing with true color digital or near infra-red satellite imagery” is incorrectly published. The sentence should read “This result provides substantive scientific support for the standard minimum buffer zone width of 60 m as reasonable for protection of sensitive aquatic habitats.”
