<https://doi.org/10.1007/s11301-021-00250-9>

Dear readers,

The authors of this article noticed two points, that still need to be corrected in retrospect.

1. Appendix A: The following text was not added here: We set the minimum threshold for occurrence of the keywords at 5.7 of the 157 keywords met this criterion.
2. Appendix F: Cerreira-Vioglio et al. (2011) are not cited correctly. All four names are part of one source. It should be linked to the reference section correctly.
3. Section 6. has been renamed to “Future research” and section 6.1 has been deleted.
4. Section 7. Has been renamed to “Conclusion”.

The original article has been corrected.

We apologize for this error.
