Correction to: Environmental Science and Pollution Research

<https://doi.org/10.1007/s11356-020-11760-6>

The correct 2nd sentence of the Abstract is “Landfills represent significant anthropogenic sources of methane (CH₄) and carbon dioxide (CO₂); the main constituents of greenhouse gases (GHGs) resultant from microbial decomposition of organic waste.”.

The original article was corrected.
