Unfortunately, the following lines were published incorrectly and should appear as shown below.

From Page 57: Satisfaction with life as a whole served as the indicator of well-being at the individual level: ‘Taking all things together, how satisfied are you with your life as a whole these days? Generally speaking, would you say you are very satisfied, satisfied, dissatisfied or very dissatisfied?’

From Page 63: Almost a third were for a name change, slightly more than a third thought the name should stay, and just under a third were of the opinion that the name change was unimportant or at least less important than other issues.
