

This volume of the Israel Journal of Mathematics is dedicated to Nati Linial, on the occasion of his 70th birthday.

Throughout the years Nati inspired many of us, among them his students, colleagues and teachers. The contributions in this volume are but a sample of his wide ranging influence.

We look forward to many more years of activity and friendship.

מזל טוב!

Eran London, Roy Meshulam and Michael Temkin