The authors would like to thank Prof. Albert Haas in University of Bonn, Germany for indicating this misquote.

In the original publication of the article, the authors found a misquote in the Reference section.

The citation to Geerds et al. (2014) is incorrect because the protein VapB in this reference is a completely unrelated protein although it has the same name as the antitoxin VapB. Therefore, the following cited reference should be deleted:

Geerds C, Wohlmann J, Haas A, Niemann HH (2014) Structure of Rhodococcus equi virulence-associated protein B (VapB) reveals an eight-stranded antiparallel β -barrel consisting of two Greek-key motifs. Acta Crystallogr F 70:866–871. <https://doi.org/10.1107/S2053230X14009911>
