Correction to: Studies in Comparative International Development <https://doi.org/10.1007/s12116-021-09346-5>

The original version of this article unfortunately contained mistakes in the formatting of Tables 2 and 3.

The errors are listed below:

1. In Table 2, the standard errors in parenthesis should be below the correlation coefficients.
2. In Table 3, the standard errors in parenthesis are properly placed below the correlation coefficients as they should be, but most of the columns are misaligned.

The original article has been corrected.
