In the original publication of the article, the authorization or reference of Fig. 1 cited for describing the installation location of liquid distributor (pink) in column wasn't normatively provided. Considering that many literatures can provide information like Fig. 1, and the relationship between this picture and the contents can be negligible, Fig. 1 will be deleted. Meanwhile, the words "as shown in Fig. 1" in the first sentence of the introduction will also be deleted.
