In the original version of this article footnote 8 was incomplete. The correct footnote is given below.

⁸It should be noted that two other papers were replaced during the replication process. For the year 2006, Malle (2006) was replaced with Nichols (2006), given that the data kindly provided by author for Study 1 did not completely match the results presented in the original paper. Note that this does not mean that the effect reported in Malle (2006)'s Study 1 is not real, as subsequent studies in the same paper (as well as unpublished replications by the same author) found a similar effect. For the same year, Cushman et al. (2006) proved to be too resource-demanding after all and was replaced by Nahmias et al. (2006).

The original article has been corrected.
