The original version of this article unfortunately contained some mistakes.

Reference Citations “121, 122••, 123–127, 128••, 129, 130•, 131–133, 134••, 135, 136•, 137–149, 150•, 151–153” were added into the last sentence of the review as follows:

“Therefore, in response to question 4, we echo others [120••, 121, 122••, 123–127, 128••, 129, 130•, 131–133, 134••, 135, 136•, 137–149, 150•, 151–153, 155••] in suggesting that proactive environmental measures to decrease exposure to palatable food cues, particularly in the form of targeted marketing to our vulnerable populations, is a necessary strategy for slowing the obesity epidemic.”

The correct citations for this sentence were [120••,155••] to read:

“Therefore, in response to question 4, we echo others [120••,155••] in suggesting that proactive environmental measures to decrease exposure to palatable food cues, particularly in the form of targeted marketing to our vulnerable populations, is a necessary strategy for slowing the obesity epidemic.”

The original article has been corrected.
