In the notes to figures 1 to 3 in our article “Evaluation of Fire Service Command Unit Trainings” (Thielsch and Hadzihalilovic 2020) it was incorrectly stated that standardized coefficients were shown. In fact, however, the non-standardized coefficients appear in these figures. We apologize for the mistake in the illustration! It is important to note that the results of the factor analyses do not change. The corrected figures can be found online at <https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.4643373>, we recommend using them in case of a presentation of our results.
