Dear Reader,

Welcome to the final issue of Drugs & Aging for 2022.

I wish to reflect on this year's achievements, and to thank all those who have contributed their time and effort to guarantee the quality of the content published in the journal.

So far in 2022, over 70 articles have been published. The most popular of these in terms of downloads from SpringerLink have been:

Fietze I, Bassetti CLA, Mayleben DW et al. Efficacy and safety of daridorexant in older and younger adults with insomnia disorder: a secondary analysis of a randomised placebo-controlled trial. Drugs Aging 2022;39:795–810.

Herrstedt J, Lindberg S, Petersen PC Prevention of chemotherapy-induced nausea and vomiting in the older patient: optimizing outcomes. Drugs Aging 2022;39:1–21.

Tumati S, Lanctôt KL, Wang R et al. Medical cannabis use among older adults in Canada: self-reported data on types and amount used, and perceived effects. Drugs Aging 2022;39:153–163.

Virnes RE, Tiihonen M, Karttunen N et al. Opioids and falls risk in older adults: a narrative review. Drugs Aging 2022;39:199–207.

Prange S, Klinger H, Laurencin C et al. Depression in patients with parkinson's disease: current understanding of its neurobiology and implications for treatment. Drugs Aging 2022;39:417–439.

Randles MA, O'Mahony D, Gallagher PFFrailty and Potentially Inappropriate Prescribing in Older People with Polyp-harmacy: A Bi-Directional Relationship. Drugs Aging 2022;39:597–606.

The high quality of content published in Drugs & Aging is reflected in the most recent Impact Factor of 4.271 and CiteScore™ of 6.7, placing the journal in the second quartile of the Geriatrics & Gerontology category for IF and the first quartile for CiteScore.

Together with the journal's Section Editors, I would like to start by thanking the authors of the articles published in Drugs & Aging over the course of 2022. The enthusiasm of all authors for their chosen fields and their willingness to contribute content to the journal are crucial for its continued success.

The quality of published articles is also testament to the diligence of the peer reviewers. I would like to acknowledge the following individuals who acted as reviewers for Drugs & Aging in the last 12 months:
