

PharmacoEconomics Supplement

Advancing measurement of children's health-related quality of life - evidence from the QUOKKA (Quality OF Life in Kids: Key evidence to strengthen decisions in Australia)
research program

Guest Editors

Mike Herdman

Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health,
National University of Singapore,
Singapore

Wendy J. Ungar

The Hospital for Sick Children Research Institute, Toronto, Ontario,
Canada

Disclosures:

All articles in this supplement are wholly funded by the Australian Government MRFF funded QUOKKA research grant 1200816, the University of Melbourne, the EuroQol Research Foundation, the University of Technology Sydney and Flinders University.

Guest Editors Conflicts of Interest:

Mike Herdman: Michael Herdman has received previous or current funding from the EuroQol Research Foundation, who is the developer and copyright holder of several of the instruments studied in this collection. Michael Herdman is a member of the EuroQol Group and played no part in the peer review or decision making of the article in this collection that he co-authored.

Wendy J. Ungar: Wendy J. Ungar has received consultant income from BroadStreet HEOR on the topic of measuring preferences for child health states.