On page 8, in the left-hand column, third paragraph, lines 9–13 which previously read:

Of the initial eight studies, one did not report baseline function [66], and another reported mean data from subjects of various sexes, ethnicities, contesting both marathon and half-marathon [39], and the appropriate reference equation could not be discerned.

Should read as:

Of the initial eight studies, one did not report absolute post-race values [66], and another reported mean data from subjects of various sexes, ethnicities, contesting both marathon and half-marathon [39], and the appropriate reference equation could not be discerned.
