The following corrections to this article as originally published should be noted:

In the first sentence of the abstract, “non-Hispanic Whites, non-Hispanic Blacks, and Hispanics adults with diabetes” should read “non-Hispanic White, non-Hispanic Black, and Hispanic adults with diabetes”.

In the first sentence under the heading Data analysis, the word “weighting” should be deleted, so that the beginning of the sentence reads: “SAS version 9.4 was used to analyze all data with the CDC two-part weight methodology...”.

In the Results in the abstract, the p value for non-Hispanic Black should be “ $p < 0.01$ ” rather than “ $p < 0.0001$ ”.

Under the heading Smoking and HRQOL, the first set of reference citations in brackets is missing a comma. The citations should read: [8, 28, 34, 35].

In the footnotes to Table 2, “NA not available” should instead read “Note: CI confidence interval; p values based on ANOVA or the chi-square test”.

The original article has been corrected.
