Welcome to the third issue of Medical Science Educator of 2022. The current issue again features a large number of manuscripts reporting on medical education, which I hope will be of interest to you.

During the 2022 IAMSE Annual Meeting in Denver I had the pleasure to present the 2022 Medical Science Educator Outstanding Reviewer Award to Dr. Audra Schaefer, University of Mississippi Medical Center. This award is an initiative of the Editorial Board of Medical Science Educator, and is presented annually to recognize one of the journal's reviewers for their outstanding peer review efforts over the past year. The recipients are selected based on several criteria including reviewer performance and delivering the reviews in a timely manner.

If you also want to join our team by becoming a reviewer for our journal, please let us know by email to journal@ iamse.org as we highly appreciate your help! As a new reviewer you will be invited to attend our free of charge dedicated faculty development program exclusively for our reviewers.

I hope you will enjoy this issue and that you will continue supporting Medical Science Educator both as a reader and as an author of your own scholarly work for the benefit of our work and the work of others!
