In the Introduction section of the article, the reference to the study referred to in the following sentence is missing: Table 1 shows some reported results that highlight the difference in efficiency between synthetic corrosion inhibitors from a study conducted at production aerial facilities of crude gas in Hassi R'Mel field (Algeria) [1].

In addition, the photo credit for Fig. 1 is missing. The images are from a Master Thesis by Gharbi Kheira, Ouargla University, Algeria (2015) [2].
