In the original publication of the article, under the abstract, time span was published incorrectly as “1980 to 2020” in the following sentence “This study aimed to assess the impact of climate ...”.

The correct time span is “1990 to 2020” and the correct sentence should read as follows “This study aimed to assess the impact of climate change on India’s agricultural sector from 1990 to 2020”.

The original article has been corrected.
