

CORRECTION

The following acknowledgement was inadvertently omitted from “Clinical imaging for prevention: Directed strategies for improved detection of presymptomatic patients with undetected atherosclerosis” (J Nucl Cardiol 2008;15:e6-e19).

Acknowledgment

Dr. Shaw receives grant support from GE Healthcare, serves on the advisory committee of CV Therapeutics, and has additional commercial interest with King Pharmaceuticals. Dr. Berman receives grant support from Bristol-Myers Squibb Medical Imaging, Astellas Pharma US, Inc., GE Healthcare, Covidien (formerly Mallinckrodt), and Molecular Insight, receives royalty payment from CSMC Software, has stocks/stock options from Spectrum Dynamics, serves on the advisory committee of FluroPharma, and receives honoraria from Bristol-Myers Squibb Medical Imaging, Covidien (formerly Mallinckrodt), and Astellas Pharma US, Inc. Dr. Blumenthal receives grant support from GE Healthcare. Dr. Budoff serves on the speakers bureau for GE Healthcare. Dr. Faber receives grant support from GE Healthcare, receives royalty payments from Siemens Medical Solutions USA, Philips Medical Systems, GE Healthcare, and Syntermed, and receives consulting fees from Syntermed. Dr. Halliburton receives grant support from Siemens Medical Solutions. Dr. Koenig receives grant support from dia-Dexus, serves on the speakers bureau of GlaxoSmithKline, AstraZeneca, and Rodie, and serves on the advisory board of GlaxoSmithKline. Dr. O’Keefe serves on the speakers bureau of AstraZeneca, Pfizer, GlaxoSmithKline, Merck, and Novartis and serves as a consultant for GlaxoSmithKline. Dr. Thomas receives grant support from Cardiovascular Therapeutics and GE Healthcare, receives speakers fees from Astellas Pharma US, Inc. and KOS, and receives consulting fees from Astellas Pharma US, Inc. and Cardiovascular Therapeutics.