The author apologises for the omitted reference and incorrectly phrased sentence that appears on page 521:

'Indeed, in any ideal new diplomacy process, there is a facilitating condition that reduces transaction costs: the shared background of key individuals in policy-making positions and NGO activists, which enables communication between the two sides of the like-minded coalition. Sometimes, this is made possible by the opening of positions within a government to former NGO members'.

This sentence should have been correctly written as

'Indeed, in any ideal new diplomacy process, there is an enabling condition that reduces transaction costs: "the shared background of key individuals in policy-making positions and NGO activists facilitate[s] communication between the two sides of the like-minded coalition ... [which sometimes is] made possible by the opening of government positions to former NGO members"'. (Petrova, 2007:19)'
