The authors and The Institute for Ethical Leadership wish to make the following statement:

Since publishing the report, The State of Ethics in Our Society: A Clear Call for Action, we have learned that one of the sources cited in the report would have liked an opportunity to comment on how its research was cited and discussed in the report, prior to publishing. We are mindful of the importance of close cooperative relationships between The Institute for Ethical Leadership and other organizations in the same field. For that reason, we are withdrawing the report from any future publication. The article will remain part of the published archive of the International Journal of Disclosure and Governance.
