

author biography

Angela Bernal Martinez was born in Bogotá in 1965. She moved to Italy when she was twenty-four years old. For fifteen years she has been a human rights activist and has worked to denounce state terrorism in her home country. In Italy, she has worked as a babysitter, waitress, newspaper correspondent, shop assistant, translator, interpreter, Spanish teacher, and graphic designer. Recently, she aspires to write and draw. She lives in Naples.

doi:10.1057/palgrave.fr.9400375