TO OUR REVIEWERS... MUCHAS GRACIAS!

Our reviewers make an invaluable contribution toward ensuring the ongoing high-quality and warm reception of our journal. Their rigorous, punctual, and balanced reviews of the latest publications in the field have assisted enormously in ensuring that we continue to be the foremost venue for scholarly dialogues, debates, and conversations in the field of Latino Studies today.

Once again, I want to take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to the reviewers of the articles we both published and considered for publication in 2006, in Volume IV. This journal is what it is because of everyone who contributes to ensure the high-quality scholarship – our reviewers are certainly a major reason for its success and I am very proud and honored to be part of this project. I truly value your expertise and continued support of Latino Studies.

Thank you/muchas gracias!
