Correction to: J Public Health Policy (2021) 42:452–464 <https://doi.org/10.1057/s41271-021-00303-z>

Due to an unfortunate oversight during the copy editing a sentence in paragraph ‘South Korea: beyond the COVID-19 pandemic’ has been given erroneously:

‘Although Korea having ratified the GCM (unlike Singapore and Brazil), wage parity with local residents has remained.’

It should be read as follows: ‘Despite Korea having ratified the GCM (unlike Singapore and Brazil), wage parity with local residents has remained elusive.’

The original article has been corrected.
