Unfortunately there have been found several examples of plagiarism. All the figures, tables, equations and most of text, without citation, knowledge and permission, were taken from master dissertation of Min Zhu "Photocatalysis of Polyoxometalates for C. I. reactive Orange 5 Solution Degradation" School of Environment Science and Engineering, Dalian Jiaotong University, Dalian, 116028 P. R. China.

The authors, admitted a mistake, apologize to the readers, to Min Zhu and to her supervisor Professor Xiuhua Zhu. The authors will be banned from publishing in Central European Journal of Chemistry for three years.
