This issue of Behavior Research Methods, Instruments, & Computers is dedicated to the 18th annual meeting of the Society for Computers in Psychology, held in Chicago, November 9, 1988. The one-day conference included paper sessions, the presidential address, three computer users' group meetings, four symposia, and a tutorial on computer viruses.

Cynthia McDaniel, Northern Kentucky University, is President for 1988-1989. The outgoing President of the Society is Earl Hunt, University of Washington, and the President-Elect is David A. Eckerman, University of North Carolina. Paula Goolkasian, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, is Secretary-Treasurer, replacing Jonathan Vaughan, of Hamilton College.

Newly elected members of the Steering Committee are Doris Aaronson, New York University; Michael Levy, University of Florida; and Cynthia Null, College of William and Mary. Other members of the Steering Committee are Susan Chipman, U.S. Office of Naval Research; Russell M. Church, Brown University; Paula Goolkasian, University of North Carolina at Charlotte; Alan Lesgold, University of Pittsburgh; Stephen Link, McMaster University; John Theios, University of Wisconsin at Madison; and Joseph Young, National Science Foundation.

James C. Mundt, University of Wisconsin at Madison, received the student award for 1988. His presentation, entitled "Computer-Based Preference Models for Generic Multidimensional Problem Sets," is printed in these Proceedings. The paper contributions of the following individuals received Honorable Mention: Heather Jane Barnes, University of Massachusetts ("A Low-Cost System for Digitizing Videotape Continuous movements"); James M. Kieley, Claremont Graduate School ("Precision Timing Options for The Apple Macintosh Family of Computers"); Carolyn Palmer, MIT and Ohio State University ("Use of Computer Graphics in Music Performance Research"); and Mark Yaphe, University of Western Ontario ("A General Purpose Facility for Adaptive Testing in Psychoacoustics")

N. John Castellan, Jr., Indiana University, was the Program Chairperson for the 1988 meetings. The Program Committee members were: Darrell L. Butler, Susan Chipman, David A. Eckerman, Paula Goolkasian, Earl B. Hunt, Howard L. Kaplan, Richard S. Lehman, Cynthia McDaniel, Mary Beth Rosson, Walter Schneider, and Michael Yost, Jr.

The 19th Annual Meeting of the Society for Computers in Psychology will convene in Atlanta, Georgia, on November 16, 1989. Individuals interested in suggesting topics or in submitting papers for the 1989 meetings are urged to contact the Program Chairperson, Darrell L. Butler, Department of Psychological Science, Ball State University, Muncie, IN 47306.

Anyone interested in joining the Society for Computers in Psychology or in participating in the meetings may obtain information by writing to Paula Goolkasian, Department of Psychology, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Charlotte, NC 28223. Membership in the group and participation in the meetings are not limited to psychologists. Students are invited to become members and to participate in the meetings.

Copies of the Proceedings since 1985 may be obtained from the Publications Office, The Psychonomic Society, Inc., 1710 Fortview Road, Austin, TX 78704. Copies of the Proceedings from 1972 through 1985 may be obtained from University Microfilms and KTO Microform.
