

Forthcoming Articles

The following is a list of Memory & Cognition articles that are currently in press. They are given in approximate order of acceptance. Each entry includes the initials (in parentheses) and address of the author with whom to communicate for further prepublication information. The author's e-mail address is also listed, if available.

Why is short-term sentence recall verbatim? An evaluation of the role of lexical priming.

M.-W. LEE & J.N. WILLIAMS—

(M.-W.L.) Research Ctr. for English & Applied Ling., Univ. of Cambridge, Keynes House, Trumpington St., Cambridge CB2 1QA, England; pss126@bangor.ac.uk

Investigations of closure processes: What source-monitoring judgments suggest about what is “closing.”

M.A. FOLEY, H.J. FOLEY, F.T. DURSO, & N.K. SMITH—

(M.A.F.) Dept. of Psychology, Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866; mfoley@skidmore.edu

Connectives and narrative text: The role of continuity.

J.D. MURRAY—

(J.D.M.) Dept. of Psychology, Landrum Box 8041, Georgia Southern Univ., Statesboro, GA 30460-8041; jmurray@gasou.edu

Semantic satiation in healthy young and older adults.

D.A. BALOTA & S. BLACK—

(D.A.B.) Dept. of Psychology, Box 1125, Washington Univ., St. Louis, MO 63130; dbalota@artsci.wustl.edu

Associations to unfamiliar words: Learning the meanings of new words.

R. CHAFFIN—

(R.C.) Dept. of Psychology, Trenton State College, Trenton, NJ 08650; rchaffin@trenton.edu

The effect of line configuration on perceived numerosity of dotted lines.

A. KRISHNA & P. RAGHUBIR—

(A.K.) 511 Uris Hall, Columbia Univ., New York, NY 10027; akrishna@research.gsb.columbia.edu

Explicit contamination in “implicit” memory for new associations.

E. MCKONE & J.A. SLEE—

(E.M.) Div. of Psychology, Australian Nat'l Univ., ACT 0200, Australia; elinor@mckone.anu.edu.au

Prior experience and complex procedures.

P. DIXON, C. ZIMMERMAN, & S. NEAREY—

(P.D.) Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Alberta, Edmonton, AB, Canada T6G 2E9; pdixon@osych.ualberta.ca

Similarity in context.

R.L. GOLDSTONE, D.L. MEDIN, & J. HALBERSTADT—

(R.L.G.) Dept. of Psychology, Indiana Univ., Bloomington, IN 47405; rgoldsto@indiana.edu

The verbal overshadowing effect: Why descriptions impair face recognition.

C.S. DODSON, M.K. JOHNSON, & J.W. SCHOOLER—

(C.S.D.) Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of California, Berkeley, CA 94720; chadd@violet.berkeley.edu

Processing strategies and secondary memory in very rapid forgetting.

R.L. MARSH, M.M. SEBRECHTS, J.L. HICKS, & J.D. LANDAU—

(R.L.M.) Dept. of Psychology, Franklin College of Arts & Sci., Athens, GA 30602-3013

Evidence for selective target processing with a low perceptual load flankers task.

L. PAQUET & G.L. CRAIG—

(L.P.) Dept. of Psychology, Carleton Univ., Ottawa, ON, Canada K1S 5B6; lpaquet@ccs.carleton.ca

Modeling the conscious correlates of recognition memory: Reflections on the remember-know paradigm.

E. HIRSHMAN & S. MASTER—

(E.H.) Dept. of Psychology, CB #3270, UNC-Chapel Hill, Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3270; elliot@memlab.psych.unc.edu

Strategic reliance on phonological mediation in lexical access.

V.C. MILOTA, A.A. WIDAU, M.R. MCMICKELL, J.F. JUOLA, & G.B. SIMPSON—
(V.C.M.) Dept. of Counseling Psychology, 116 Bailey Hall, Univ. of Kansas, Lawrence, KS 66045-2336; juola@statl.cc.ukans.edu

A mere exposure effect for transformed three-dimensional objects: Effects of reflection, size, or color changes on affect and recognition.

J.G. SEAMON, D. GANOR-STERN, M.J. CROWLEY, S.M. WILSON, W.J. WEBER, C.M. O'ROURKE, &
J.K. MAHONEY—
(J.G.S.) Dept. of Psychology, Wesleyan Univ., Middletown, CT 06459-0408; jseamon@wesleyan.edu

The effects of cue distinctiveness on odor-based context-dependent memory.

R.S. HERZ—
(R.S.H.) Monell Chemical Senses Ctr., 3500 Market St., Philadelphia, PA 19104; herz@pobox.upenn.edu

The nature of memory processes underlying recognition judgments in the process dissociation procedure.

A. BUCHNER, E. ERDFELDER, M.C. STEFFENS, & H. MARTENSEN—
(A.B.) FB I-Psychologie, Universität Trier, Universitätsring 15, D-54286 Trier, Germany; buchner@cogpsy.uni-trier.de

Inhibitory control over no longer relevant information: Adult age differences.

L. HASHER, M.B. QUIG, & C.P. MAY—
(L.H.) Dept. of Psychology, Social and Health Sci., Box 90085, Duke Univ., Durham, NC 27708; lhasher@acpub.duke.edu

A visuospatial “phonological loop” in working memory: Evidence from American sign language.

M. WILSON & K. EMMOREY—
(M.W.) Lab. for Cognitive Neuroscience, Salk Inst. for Biological Studies, 10010 N. Torrey Pines Rd., La
Jolla, CA 92037; wilson@crl.ucsd.edu

The effect of presemantic acoustic adaptation on semantic “satiation.”

M. PILOTTI, J. ANTROBUS, & M. DUFF—
(M.P.) Dept. of Psychology, College of Staten Island, 2800 Victory Blvd., Staten Island, NY 10314; pilotti@postbox.csi.cuny.edu

Fast categorization of stimuli with multivalued dimensions.

K. LAMBERTS & N. BROCKDORFF—
(K.L.) School of Psychology, Univ. of Birmingham, Edgbaston, Birmingham B15 2TT, England

The representation of nonstructural information in visual memory: Evidence from image combination.

P. WALKER, G.J. HITCH, S.A. DEWHURST, H.E. WHITELEY, & M.A. BRANDIMONTE—
(P.W.) Dept. of Psychology, Lancaster Univ., Lancaster LA1 4YF, England; p.walker@lancaster.ac.uk

The coincidence effect in similarity and choice.

A.S. KAPLAN & D.L. MEDIN—
(A.S.K.) Dept. of Psychology, 603 E. Daniel St., Champaign, IL 61820; akaplan@s.psych.uiuc.edu

Repetition blindness and bilingual memory: Token individuation for translation equivalents.

J. ALTARRIBA & E.G. SOLTANO—
(J.A.) Dept. of Psychology, SS 112, SUNY, Albany, NY 12222; ja087@csc.albany.edu

Causal and conditional inferences: A comment on Cummins (1995).

N. FAIRLEY & K.I. MANKTELOW—
(K.I.M.) School of Health Sciences, Univ. of Wolverhampton, 62-68 Lichfield St., Wolverhampton WV1 1DJ, England

Characterizing the intuitive representation in problem solving: Evidence from evaluating mathematical strategies.

J.A. DIXON & C.F. MOORE—
(J.A.D.) Dept. of Psychology, Trinity Univ., 715 Stadium Dr., San Antonio, TX 78212; jdixon@trinity.edu

Mental animation in the visuospatial sketchpad: Evidence from dual-task studies.

V.K. SIMS & M. HEGARTY—
(M.H.) Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of California, Santa Barbara, CA 93106; hegarty@condor.psych.ucsb.edu

Reply to Fairley and Manktelow's comment on “Naive theories and causal deduction”.

D.D. CUMMINS—
(D.D.C.) Dept. of Psychology, California State Univ., 6000 J St., Sacramento, CA 95819-6007; dcummins@csus.edu

Processing of English inflectional morphology.

J.A. SERENO & A. JONGMAN—

(J.A.S.) Dept. of Modern Languages, Morrill Hall, Cornell Univ., Ithaca, NY 14853; joan.sereno@cornell.edu

The role of verbal tense and verbal aspect in the foregrounding of information during reading.

M. CARREIRAS, N. CARRIEDO, M.A. ALONSO, & A. FERNANDEZ—

(M.C.) Dept. de Psicología Cognitiva, Univ. de La Laguna, 38205 Tenerife, Spain; mcarreiras@ull.es

Features and their configuration in face recognition.

J.W. TANAKA & J.A. SENGCO—

(J.W.T.) Dept. of Psychology, Severance Lab, Oberlin College, Oberlin, OH 44074

Masked orthographic priming in bilingual word recognition.

R. BIJELJAC-BABIC, A. BIARDEAU, & J. GRAINGER—

(R.B.) Lab. Language et Communication, Univ. de Poitiers, 95 Av. de Recteur Pineau, F-86022 Poitiers, France; psylan@hermes.univ-poitiers.fr

Recognition of music in long-term memory: Are melodic and temporal patterns equal partners?

S. HEBERT & I. PERETZ—

(I.P.) Dept. de Psychologie, Univ. de Montréal, C.P. 6128, succ. Centre-ville, Montreal, PQ, Canada H3C 3J7; peretzi@ere.umontreal.ca

The syllable's role in word naming.

L. FERRAND, J. SEGUI, & G.W. HUMPHREYS—

(L.F.) Lab. de Psych. Expérimentale, CNRS and Univ. René Descartes, 28 rue Serpente, 75006 Paris, France; ferrandl@idf.ext.jussieu.fr

Location errors in partial-report bar-probe studies: In search of the origin of cue-alignment problems.

R. HAGENAAR & A.H.C. VAN DER HEIJDEN—

(A.H.C.V.) Unit of Experimental & Theoretical Psych., Leiden University, P.O. Box 9555, 2300 RB Leiden, The Netherlands; heijden@rulfsw.leidenuniv.nl

Self-events and other-events: Temporal dating and event memory.

A.L. BETZ & J.J. SKOWRONSKI—

(A.L.B.) GTE Laboratories Inc. 40 Sylvan Rd. Waltham, MA 02254; abetz@gte.com

Response-to-stimulus interval does not affect implicit motor sequence learning, but does affect performance.

D.B. WILLINGHAM, A.R. GREENBERG, & R.C. THOMAS—

(D.B.W.) Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Virginia, 102 Gilmer Hall, Charlottesville, VA 22903; dbw8m@virginia.edu

Encoding, repetition, and the mirror effect in recognition memory: Symmetry in motion.

A. HILFORD, M. GLANZER, & K. KIM—

(M.G.) Dept. of Psychology, New York Univ., 6 Washington Pl., New York, NY 10003; mg@xp.psych.nyu.edu

Linguistic focus affects eye movements during reading.

S. BIRCH & K. RAYNER—

(S.B.) School of Cognitive Sci., Hampshire College, Amherst, MA 01002; sbirch@hampshire.edu

Categorizing chairs and naming pears: Category differences in object processing as a function of task and priming.

T.J. LLOYD-JONES & G.W. HUMPHREYS—

(T.J.L.) Cognitive Neurosci. Research Ctr., Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Kent, Canterbury, Kent CT2 7LZ, England

Rate of temporal discounting decreases with amount of reward.

L. GREEN, J. MYERSON, & E. MCFADDEN—

(L.G.) Dept. of Psychology, Washington Univ., St. Louis, MO 63130; lgreen@artsci.wustl.edu

False recognition in younger and older adults: Exploring the characteristics of illusory memories.

K.A. NORMAN & D.L. SCHACTER—

(K.A.N.) Graduate Student Mailboxes, Psychology, Harvard Univ., 33 Kirkland St., Cambridge, MA 02138; norman@wjh.harvard.edu

The influence of word function in the missing-letter effect: Further evidence from French.

J. SAINT-AUBIN & M. POIRIE—

(J.S.) École de Psychologie, Univ. Laval, Sainte-Foy, PQ, Canada G1K 7P4; jean.saint-aubin@psy.ulaval.ca

Age differences in the allocation of study time account for age differences in memory performance.

J. DUNLOSKY & L.T. CONNOR—

(J.D.) Dept. of Psychology, 296 Eberhart Bldg., Univ. of NC at Greensboro, Greensboro, NC 27412-5001

Egocentric spatial framework effects from single and multiple points of view.

R.H. MAKI & M.N. MAREK—

(R.H.M.) Dept. of Psychology, North Dakota State Univ., Fargo, ND 58105-5075; rumaki@plains.nodak.edu

Associative and similarity-based processes in categorization decisions.

J.A. HAMPTON—

(J.A.H.) Dept. of Psychology, City University, Northampton Square, London EC1V 0HB, England;

j.a.hampton@city.ac.uk

At-lexical, articulatory interference in silent reading: The “upstream” tongue-twister effect.

D.H. ROBINSON & A.D. KATAYAMA—

(D.H.R.) P.O. Box 9727, Mississippi State Univ., Mississippi State, MS 39762; robinson@ra.msstate.edu

Conceptual combination: Conjunction and negation of natural concepts.

J.A. HAMPTON—

(J.A.H.) Dept. of Psychology, City Univ., Northampton Sq., London EC1V 0HB, England;

j.a.hampton@city.ac.uk

The distribution of autobiographical memories across the lifespan.

D.C. RUBIN & M.D. SCHULKIND—

(D.C.R.) Dept. of Experimental Psych., Duke Univ., Durham, NC 27708-0086; rubin@psych.duke.edu

The phonological loop model of working memory: An ERP study of irrelevant speech and phonological similarity effects.

M. MARTIN-LOECHES, S.R. SCHWEINBERGER, & W. SOMMER—

(M.M.) BMU, Pluridisciplinar Inst., Complutense Univ., Po. Juan XXIII, 1.E-28040 Madrid, Spain;

mmartin@eucmax.sim.ucm.es

One step is not enough: Making better use of association norms to predict cued recall.

D.L. NELSON, D.J. BENNETT, & T.W. LEIBERT—

(D.L.N.) Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of South Florida, Tampa, FL 33620; nelson@luna.cas.usf.edu

Gender differences in episodic memory.

A. HERLITZ, L.-G. NILSSON, & L. BÄCKMAN—

(A.H.) Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of Stockholm, S-10691 Stockholm, Sweden; ahz@psychology.su.se

Need-probability affects retention: A direct demonstration.

R.B. ANDERSON, R.D. TWENEY, M. RIVARDO, & S. DUNCAN—

(R.B.A.) Dept. of Psychology, Bowling Green State Univ., Bowling Green, OH 43403;

randers@trapper.bgsu.edu

Evaluating characteristics of false memories: Remember/know judgments and memory characteristics questionnaire compared.

M. MATHER, L.A. HENKEL, & M.K. JOHNSON—

(M.M.) Dept. of Psychology, Princeton Univ., Princeton, NJ 08544-1010; tmmather@princeton.edu

A naturalistic study of the word frequency effect in episodic recognition.

K.A. CHALMERS, M.S. HUMPHREYS, & S. DENNIS—

(K.A.C.) Dept. of Psychology, The Univ. of Queensland, Brisbane QLD 4072, Australia; kerry@psy.uq.edu.au

Memory for locations within regions. Spatial biases and visual hemifields differences.

B. LAENG, M. PETERS, & B. MCCABE—

(B.L.) Dept. of Psychology, Harvard Univ., 33 Kirkland, Cambridge, MA 02138; laeng@wjh.harvard.edu

Modality, concreteness, and set-size effects in a free reconstruction of order task.

I. NEATH—

(I.N.) Dept. of Psychological Sciences, 1364 Psychological Sci. Bldg., Purdue Univ., West Lafayette, IN

47907-1364; neath@psych.purdue.edu
